Zero-Waste Collection

*This is a group assignment.

*This activity has a sustainability aspect.

Specifics:

Students will form groups of three to five to develop a line of Zero-Waste Designs using 3D software. Add more specifics on how many pieces were made, purpose of project (sustainability), product types, final outcome, etc. This project includes: Add more specific steps below.

- Different leadership roles along with a self-evaluation of each student's leadership type. Expand on what the roles entail.
- A marker for each style using CLO.
- Fully rendered styles using CLO.
- Fully sewn garments in real life using patterns developed using CLO.
- Technical Package for each garment.

Competencies: 1) task management and completion, 2) critical decision making, 3) creative problem solving, 4) spatial visualization, 5) leadership